The Story

The beginning of a movement

As a country that suffered the harsh realities of communist rule and extreme poverty dating back to WWII, Romania still experiences the effects of their past today. Romania is seeking renewal physically, emotionally and spiritually by building into its next generation. With the fall of the dictatorship of Nicolae Ceausescu in 1989, economic, religious, political, and social freedom began to emerge. At that point, the Hungarian Baptist Churches of Romania were able to pursue the redeeming work of Jesus Christ in new ways.

This birthed the movement of Camp Falcon Rock.

Owned and operated by the Hungarian Baptist Convention of Romania (HBC) and partnered with the North American Baptist Conference (NAB), Camp Falcon Rock is rooted in evangelism, education, social development and leadership training. These five areas will allow the Spirit of God to bring holistic life change to the next generation of young people in Romania, who in turn will impact the nation.

We are empowering the next generation by discipling leaders who pursue the Kingdom of God.

The Challenges

- Population: 19.7 million
- Average salary: $200/month
- Income Tax: 56% of gross income
- 1 in 5 people (22%) live below poverty line
- Highest child poverty rate in the developed world
- Cultures: Romanians, Hungarians, Roma People
- Evangelical Religion: 6.4% of people
- HBC has 8,000 members, 200+ churches, only 65 pastors
- Pastors oversee between 3 -10 churches each

Camp Falcon Rock is determined and will be equipped to serve these challenges through anchoring its mission in Christ. All of these challenges create a need for partnership. Through your support there will be opportunities for Romanians to lead this development. With that, Tamas and Tunde Modi (born and raised in Romania) are the camp directors as appointed by the HBC and will continue to be integral to the success of the ministry.

The Faces

Tamas and Tunde

“God created us and blessed us with many abilities and gifts for life, however, more importantly, we must use our abilities and gifts for His Kingdom. Camp Falcon Rock is a great opportunity for us to tell young people about Jesus’ love and show them how to use their gifts and abilities for God’s ministry.”

The Plan

1 PHASE ONE establishes essential structures. The existing building has been renovated creating a temporary building to run camps for up to 60 people. In the long term this will serve as a secondary meeting place and lodge. We will construct a water and sewage system, install electrical infrastructure, and acquire necessary permits. A winterized multi-purpose main lodge will be built allowing dining for 200 campers. We will develop 4 duplex cabins each accommodating 20 people. Upon completion, we will be able to officially open the doors of Camp Falcon Rock allowing active ministry to begin!

Phase One: $1.2M

2 PHASE TWO establishes sustainable long-term spaces. Staff houses will be constructed for year round staff. We will develop an accommodation lodge to sleep up to 100 people. Four more duplex cabins will be built, accommodating 20 people each. To help with sustainable revenue, we will create an artificial soccer field. In addition, we will construct a chapel and recreational activity centers. Upon completion, we will be able to increase our camper capacity and begin year round programs. The ministry will increase its impact to reach thousands of people each year!

Phase Two: $1.6M

“Camp Falcon Rock’s impact on youth development will help define the rest of their lives. The camp will be a place where people receive biblical teaching and learn about our call to follow Jesus, which is especially important in our culture. We believe that through Camp Falcon Rock, there will be thousands of people who will find Jesus Christ as their Saviour.”

Momentum

Partnership

Camp Falcon Rock is already reaching communities throughout Romania through the staff who are committed to seeing this ministry grow. Yet, resources are limited and the challenges found within development in Romania require passionate partners to help see this vision come to life. To realize the dream of Camp Falcon Rock, people who share a heart and vision for this ministry are called to join together to generously support it through prayer, finances, and assistance in helping expand the network of friends.
